

DO NOT PACK! Items Your Mover Won't Move

PERISHABLES

Your mover cannot move items that will crack, leak, rot, mold, or attract mice, rats, or other pests including the following items.

Frozen Foods	Open Packaged Foods	Plants
Flowers	Refrigerated Foods	Produce

VALUABLES

Items that have special sentimental value or are difficult or impossible to replace are things over which you want to maintain control.

Address Books	Computers, Laptops and Tablets	Pagers
Airline and Travel Tickets	Financial Documents	Personal Video Tapes, CDs and DVDs
Automobile Title	Important Personal Documents (Deeds, Insurance Policies, Licenses, Wills)	Photos and Photo Albums
Cash	Jewelry	Precious Metals (Gold, Silver, etc.)
Cell Phones	Keys (Car, Safe, Home, etc.)	School Records

Checkbooks	Medical, Immunization and Dental Records	Stocks, Bonds, Certificates of Deposit
Collectibles and Heirlooms	Medicine and Prescriptions	Storage Devices (Thumb Drives, CDs, DVDs, External Hard Drives, etc.)

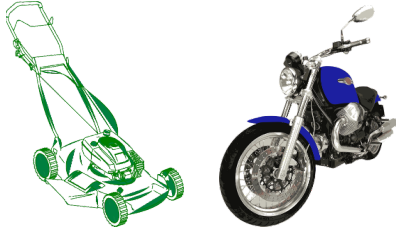

HAZARDOUS MATERIALS

Your mover cannot move items that are flammable, corrosive, or explosive. In general, if you cannot dispose of the item in your regular trash collection or ship it, your mover will not pack or move it. This includes the following items.

Acids	Firearms	Paint Thinner
Aerosols	Fireworks	Paint
Ammonia	Gasoline	Pesticides
Ammunition	Kerosine	Poisons
Batteries of any kind	Lamp Oil	Pool Chemicals
Bleach	Lighter Fluid	Propane Tanks
Charcoal	Matches	Reloading Supplies
Chemistry Sets	Motor Oil	Scuba Tanks
Darkroom Chemicals	Nail Polish	Solvents
Fertilizer	Nail Polish Remover	Sterno
Fire Extinguishers	Oxygen or Acetylene Tanks	Weed Killers

GAS-POWERED VEHICLES AND EQUIPMENT

In order to move the following items, they must be drained of gasoline and oil at least 24 hours prior to being moved, and some movers will not move them at all. Check with your mover to determine their company's specific policy about gas-powered vehicles and equipment.

Automobiles	Leaf Blowers	Snowmobiles
Edgers	Motorcycles	Tractors
Jet Skis	Rototillers	Weed Eaters
Lawn Mowers		